. By notice dated 27th October, 2006 Exh.B to the petition the respondents had asked the petitioners to rectify the irregularities stated by them. This notice was replied to by the petitioner vide letters dated 7th December, 2006 and 24th January, 2007. The petitioners have raised various pleas including non application of the very provision to them. It was expected by the public authority to consider the representation made to them and pass appropriate orders. The learned counsel appearing for the respondents submits that they will consider both the replies submitted by the petitioners and pass appropriate orders within two months from today. In the event any adverse order is passed to the interest of the petitioners the same shall not be given effect to for a period of four weeks from the date of service thereof upon the petitioners.

. The petition is disposed of in the above terms leaving the parties to bear their own costs.
